Dedication

No words can express our gratitude. No actions can portray our appreciation. No language can describe our feelings for our parents to whom we owe so much.

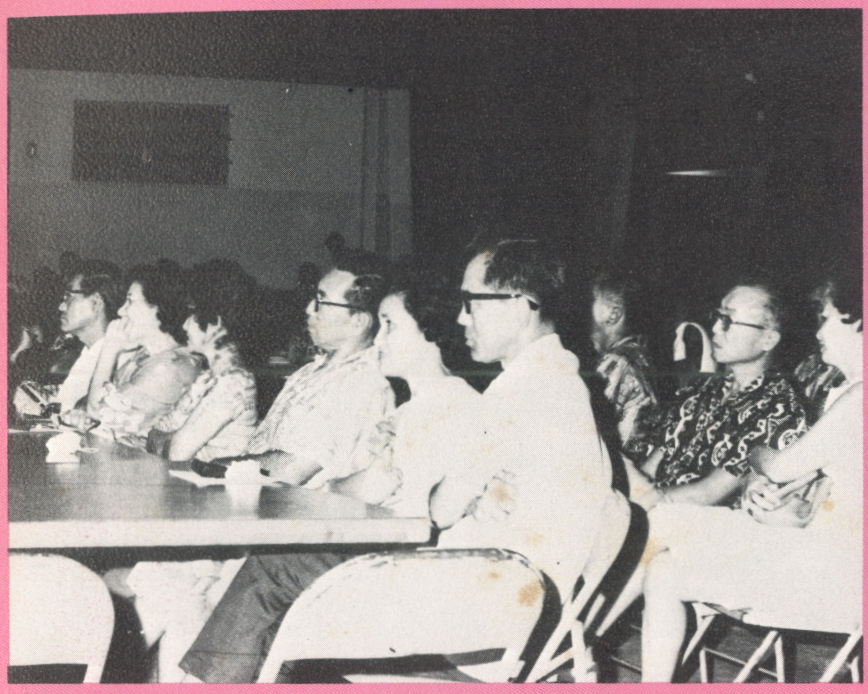
For 17 years, they have played the major role in our lives. They have taught us, admonished us, and guided us through our most difficult hours. In our formative years, we have found their help and guidance invaluable in establishing a firm foundation for the formation of our character.

There were times when we disagreed and argued with them. There were times when we thought they were wrong, but gradually, we realized that accepting their decisions was a part of maturing.

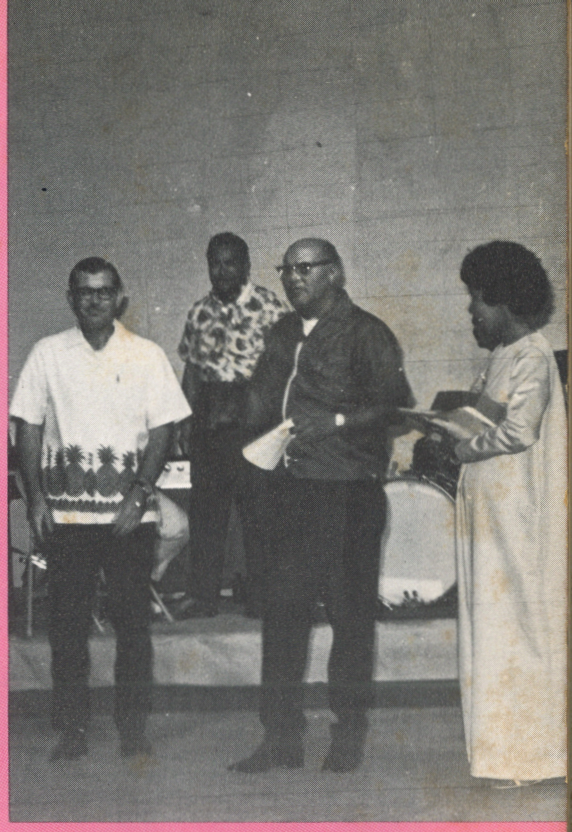
Today, leaving Damien as men, we must credit our parents with our success. Through their love and sacrifice, they have set the foundation upon which we have built our character. Through their words and example, we have been encouraged to "ACT MANFULLY."

Therefore, in the spirit of grateful appreciation, we, the students of Damien, dedicate Kamiano '69 to our parents.

It is our hope that they accept it as a small token of our eternal gratitude.



Parents patiently wait in line to discuss their sons' progress in school.



Mr. Cavaco thanks Br. Kennedy and Mrs. Inaura for their "kokua" in the carnival as Mr. Ahloy looks on.

Parents listen attentively at the November Kokua Klub meeting.

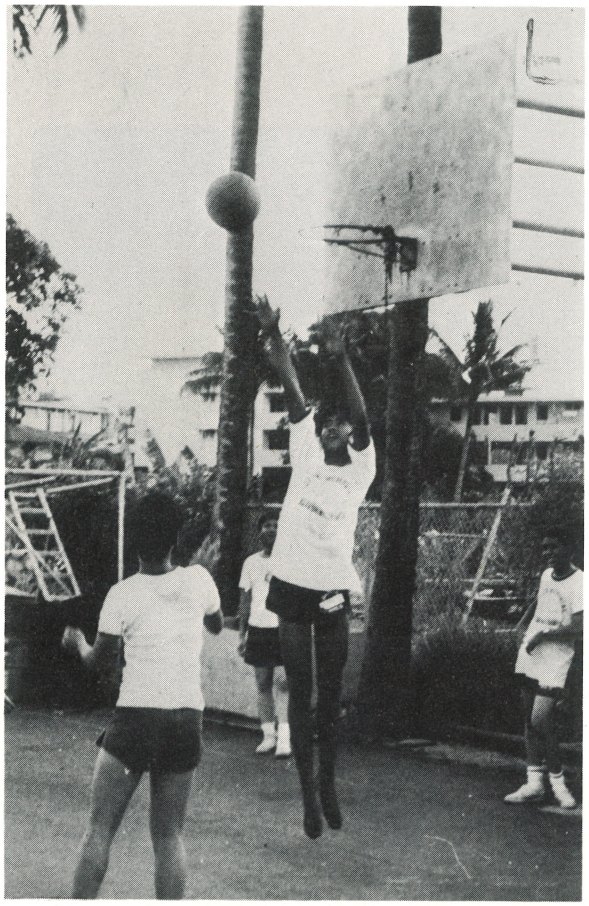
Amid the thunderous roar of overwhelming crowds, . . .

the psychedelic beat of local bands, . . .

And the responsive applause to a sparkling performance, . . .

Emerges the socially aware student . . .

always ready to lend a hand.



Damien stresses strength of body . . .

. . . . . mind . . . .

. . . and spirit.

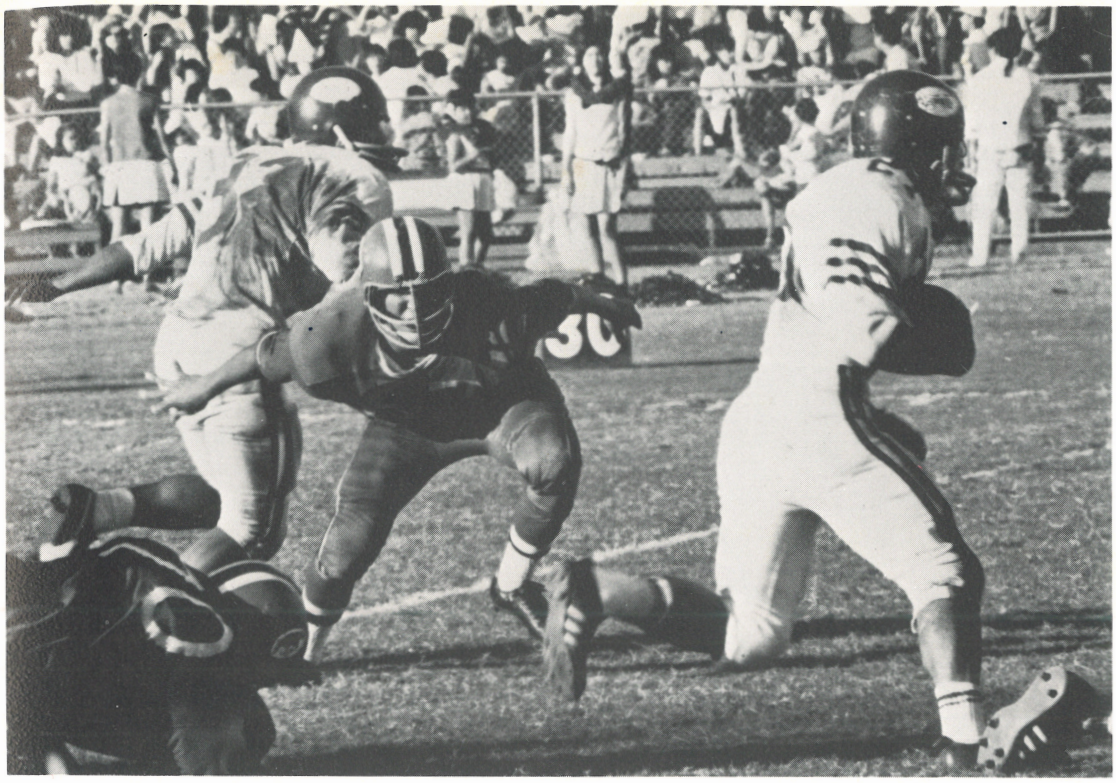
Monarchs Roar When The Going Gets Rough



"Jitterbug" Joe eludes a tackler and heads downfield.

Coach Tam offers words of advice to one of his boys.

Paul Medeiros (75) blocks as Peter Won (86) skirts around right end for a big gain against Farrington.

This past season the varsity football team enjoyed much success; but also had several shortcomings. Their spirit to fight and win was rewarded with victories over Roosevelt and Kalani, and a hold on first place in the rugged Inter-scholastic League of Honolulu. In the next few games, Damien showed its football prowess in near upsets over St. Louis, McKinley, and Farrington. However, plagued with fumbles, interceptions, the loss of quarterback Bobby Akana, and plain bad luck, the Monarchs dropped their last three games. Sparked by the running of Joe Hisatake, who led the league in rushing, and the brilliant two-way performance of Jon Kumashiro, the Monarchs were a threat in every game.

KAMIANO salutes the Monarchs, who under the watchful eye of Coach Don Botelho, have done a great job.

It's a little slippery, but it's also another touchdown for Errol.

Almost a blocked punt.

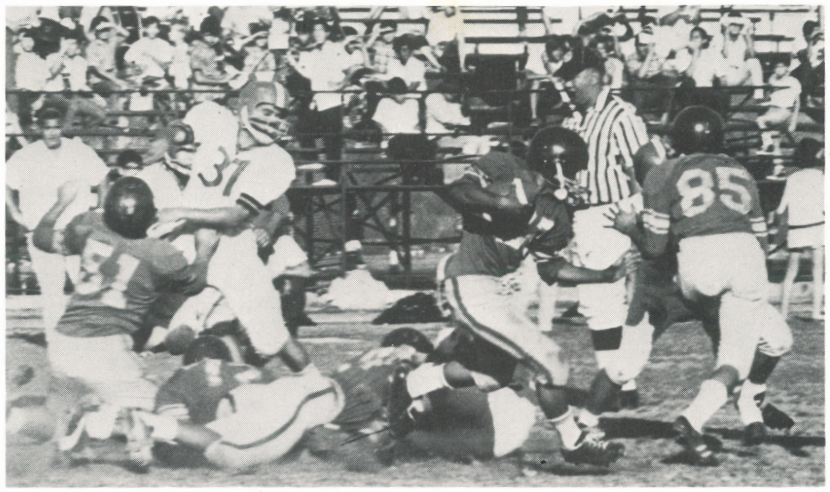
"It's all yours, Joe!"

Junior Monarchs Show Their Strength

Although the team showed great promise in beating Kailua 7-0 during the pre-season, the Junior Monarchs failed to realize their full potential, dropping all their ILH games.

The defense was spearheaded by middle guard Jesse Flores, and the offense by Adrian Kaonohi and Phillip Mau, but inexperience and lack of depth hurt the team seriously.

The J.V. lost by small margins to Roosevelt, St. Louis, and McKinley, but even when they were outmanned, they were never outfought.



Peter Abang rips through the Iolani line.

Frosh Runners Accumulate Victories

Inspired by the coaching of Mr. Chapman and Br. Koppes, the '69 edition of the Freshman track team became an excellent example of Damien spirit and determination. Following in the footsteps of the other Damien track teams, the Freshmen enjoyed a successful season. Freshmen standouts David Miranda, Clayton Kishii, Dennis Delfosse, and others will provide an excellent nucleus for next year's Varsity and J. V. teams. These talented freshmen can be counted on to lead Damien's teams for several seasons to come.

First Row (L–R): Nick Lopez (Manager), Clyde Kaneko, Errol Kilantang, Stephen Fong. Second Row: Steven Dinnan, Kevin Wong, Robert Yee, Irvin Wong, Michael Furtado, Jeffery Carvalho. Third Row: Alan DeLaura, Tim Edwards, Robert Lockyer, Herbert Lloyd, Peter Won, Patrick Pettypool. Fourth Row: Richard Akau, Nick Carpio, Russell Stewart, Keith Anderson, Victor Eharis, Mathew Yee. Coaches: Mr. Chapman, Br. J.S.O'Keefe, Br. Koppes.

With determination and perspiration, the Open and Novice track teams fought to capture the state crown. A well-balanced Varsity team, led by returning runners Robert Lockyer, Errol Kilantang, Herbert Lloyd, and Stephen Fong, ran circles around the opposition in preseason meets. The J. V. team did just as well, as Gene Silva, Felix Lenchenko, and Tony Navares rising from last year's freshmen ranks, outran all their opponents with their form and spirit. With Brother O'Keefe as head coach and with the help of Br. Koppes and Mr. Chapman, this year's track teams proved to be the best ever.

Stephen Fong grabs the baton from Clyde Kaneko.

Robert Davis skims over the last hurdle to victory.

Herbert Lloyd strides out the two-mile with ease.

The Competition Was Rough; the Victories Were Sweet

Tony Navares and Bob Davis take the lead in the low hurdles.

Rich Akau gets ready to break a record.

Clyde Kaneko and Errol Kilantang lead the pack.

Mike Miranda clears eight feet.

Bob Lockyer shows off his talent in the 440.

Varsity Nine Conquer All Competition

With the capable pitching of Ken Nomura and Alan Koochi, the powerful hitting of Charles Peterson and Pat Leong, the excellent fielding of Denis Duarte and Chris Maehara, and the exceptional catching of Kimo Lunasco, the Varsity team in true Monarch spirit, went out to break all records. Their success can be credited to a truly great coach, Mr. George Rodrigues.

Kevin Murphy warms up for a game.

Anxious Grant Sugai gives his bat a chance to swing.

Molded into an efficient, well-organized unit by Coach Makekau, the JayVee Baseball team enjoyed a most successful season. Steven Taomae, a talented player and great team man, proved to be the spark of the team. Also worthy of mention were Marshall Ige, John Popovich, and Grant Sugai. Because of the large number of Freshmen, it appears that the Jay-Vee team will be a source of great ball-handlers in future years.

Steven Taomae makes a clean sweep of the ball.

J.V. Hitters Run the Bases

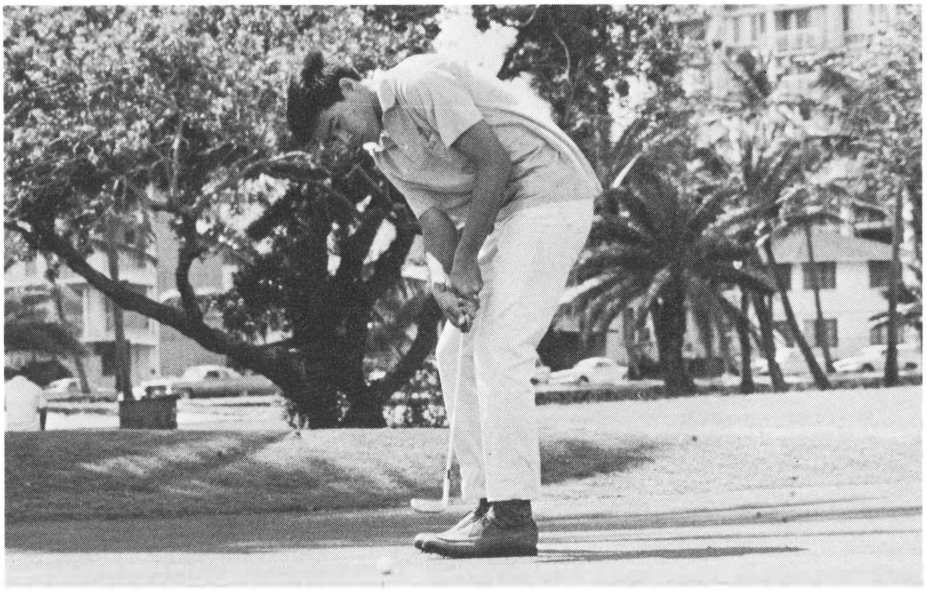
Golfers Tee Off Successful Season



Kenneth Tai putts in for a par.

Although it was the youngest team in the league, the Damien golf team, spearheaded by captains Mark Mizuko, and Mark Chang, fought valiantly and placed well in the ILH standings. With many veterans of previous years, who were supported by a few promising underclassmen, the team made itself known in all of the golf tournaments. Coached by Brother J. B. O'Keefe and Mr. Al Pacheco, the seven pros successfully matched their skills against the best players in the islands.

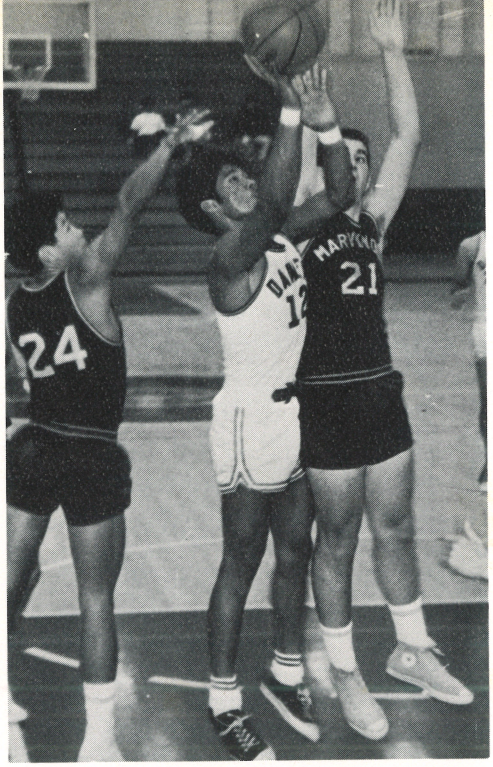
Mark Mizuko tees off at Ala Wai.

Senior Ball-Handlers Tear up the Courts



Bareng puts another one up.

Another two points for the Monarchs.

Paul Reitmeier fights for control of the ball.

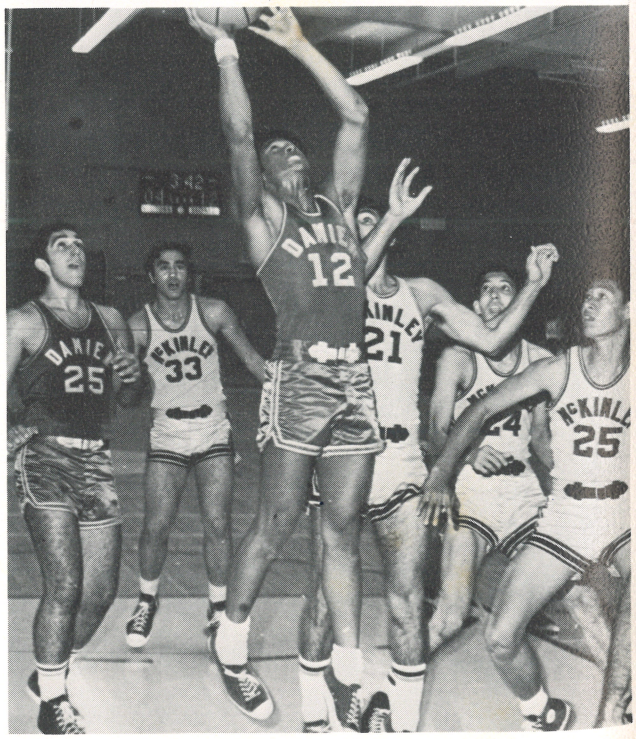
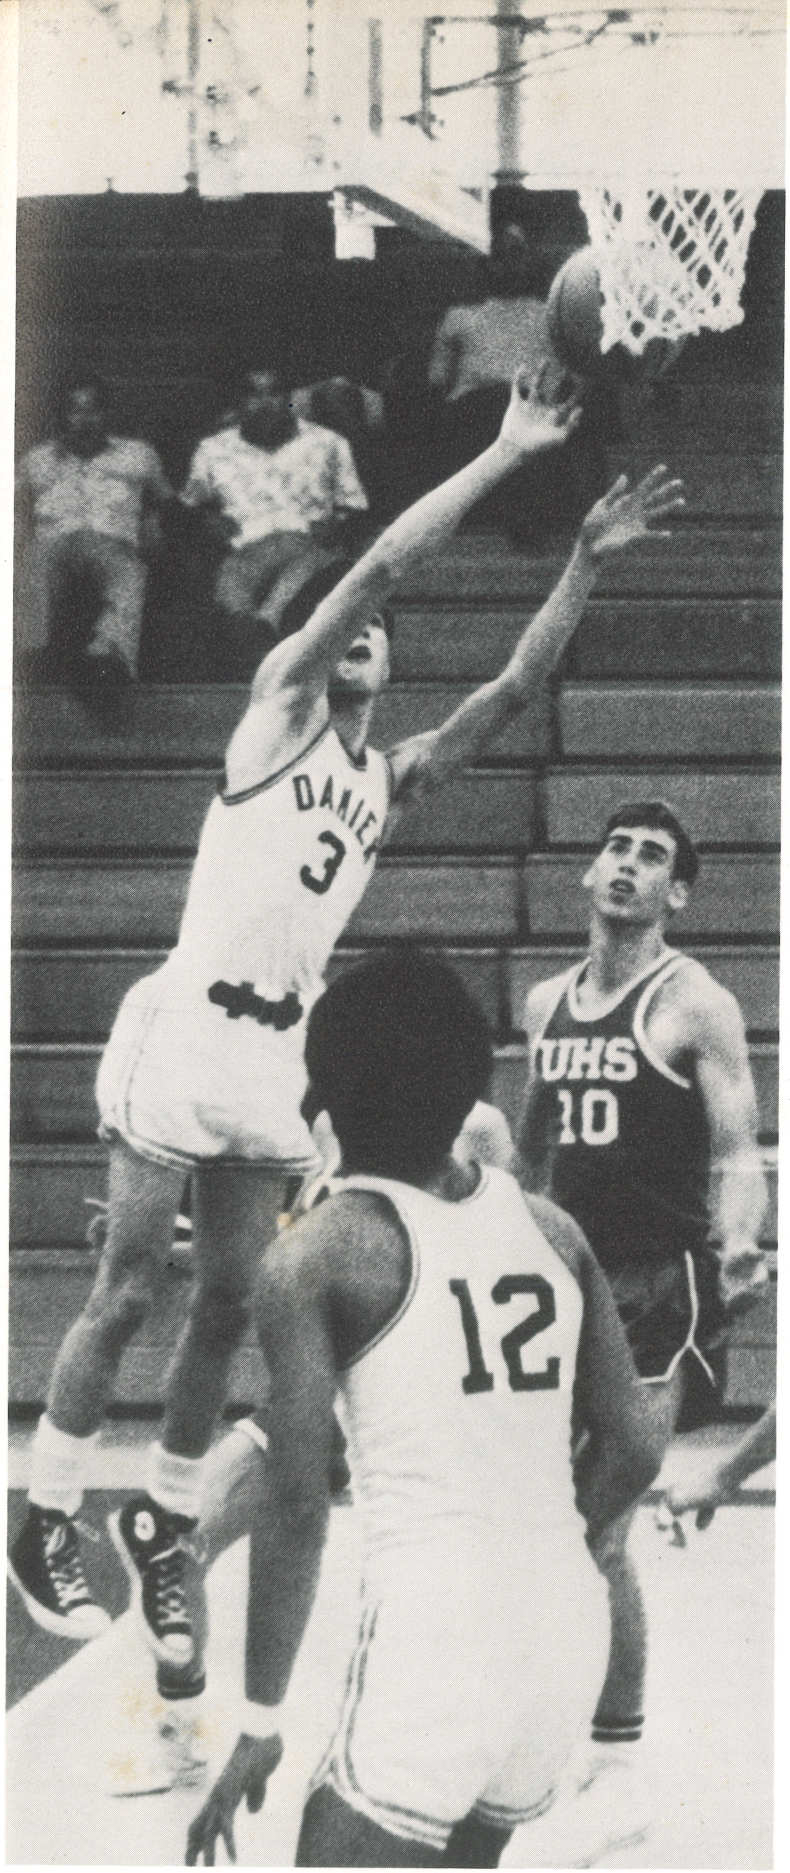
After a mediocre showing last year, the Varsity Basketball team held high hopes of a top-notch standing in the ILH League action this year. Defeating Hawaii Prep, Kahuku, and Castle, the team won the pre-season Mid-Pac tournament, then travelled to the Big Island where they beat St. Joseph's but lost to Hilo High.

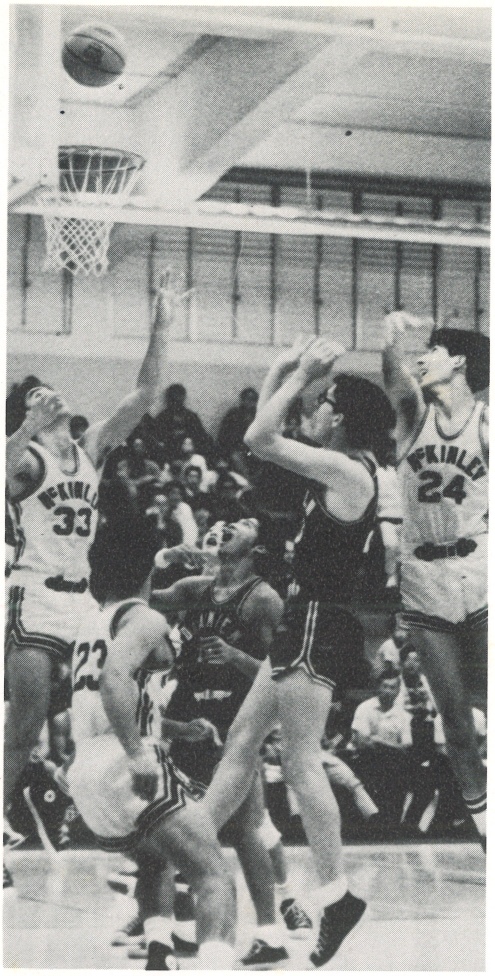
Coached by Mr. Claude Hottendorf and Mr. Bobby Au, the Monarchs played even games all the way through the League. Led by Ben Lum, Peter Bareng, Joe Hisatake, Kevin Murphy, Paul Medeiros, and Gary Ontai, the Damien Varsity Basketball team has had a very successful season.



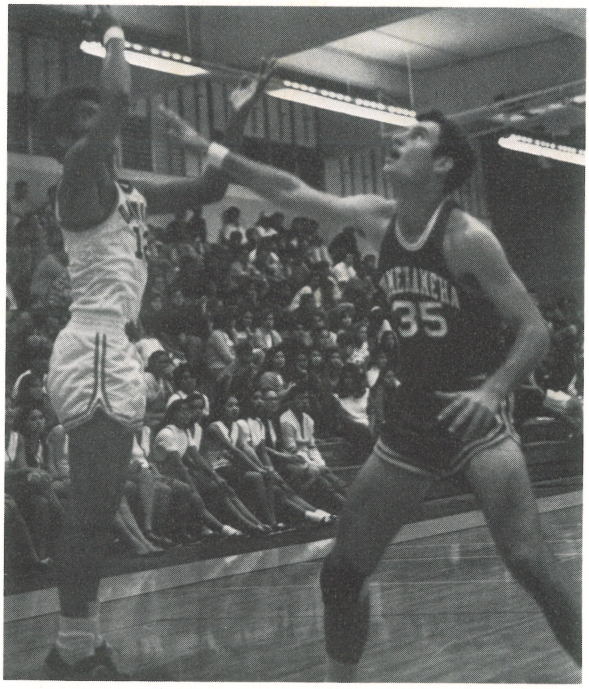
Peter Bareng shoots amidst a host of McKinley defenders.



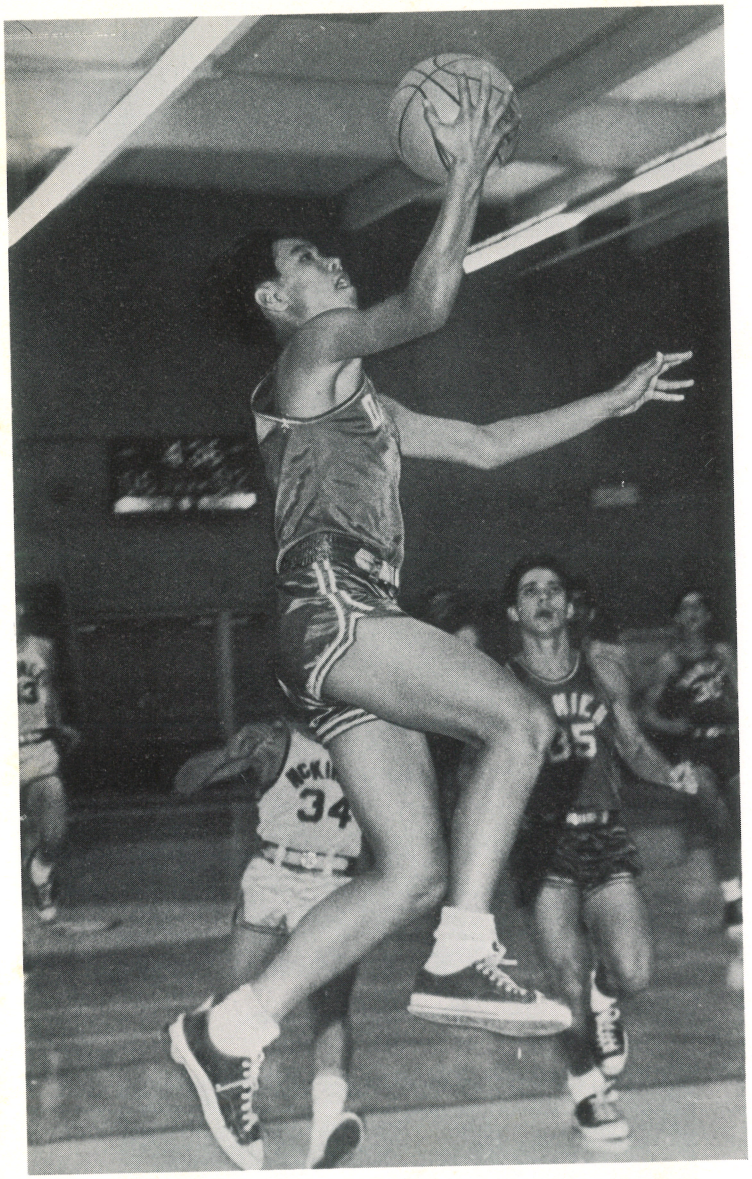
Supported by Peter, a confident Ben sinks it in for two points.



Two points for Murphy.



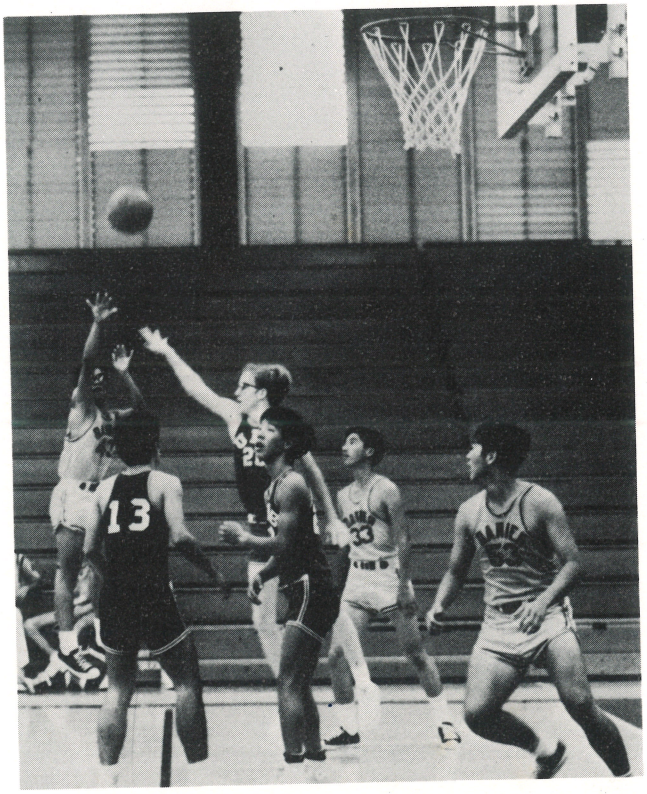
Beautiful shot by Bareng.



Keith Moku takes a lay-up as Mike Chow rushes in for the rebound.

Sophomore Sharpshooters

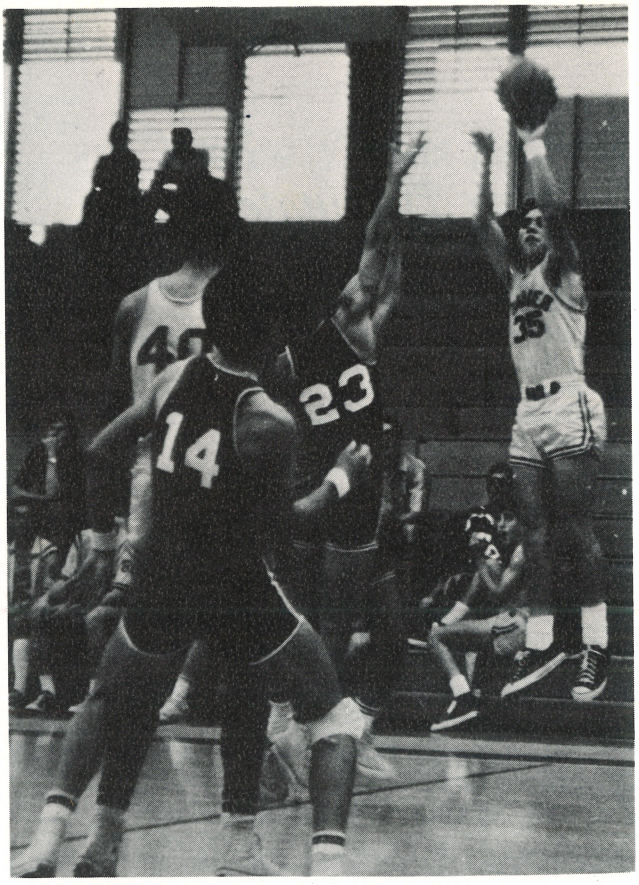
From the first pre-season game to the final league contest, the J.V. team fought to win. Never disappointed by overwhelming odds, the team played with all the skill of a Varsity team. Guided by Coaches McInerney and Kiner, the Junior Varsity was led by such fine players as Gene Silva, Tony Navares, and Mike Chow. Although a lack of height and experience hindered the team in its bid for the Number One position, they enjoyed a fine season and brought much honor to themselves and to the school.



Peter Abang's sharp shooting helps open a big gap in the score against University High.

Enliven the Courts

Randy Medeiros jumping for the ball against University.



Mike Chow takes two from the side.

Frosh Dominate the Basketball Courts

Out of a cloud of mingling players, shattered hopes and ecstatic joy, the Freshman team has sparked an imminent era of basketball giants. Under the careful guidance of Coach Chapman, the Frosh placed well in the standings, losing only three games. Led by Byron Morse and Stein Fernandez, the team played well and showed fine spirit throughout the season. From these fine young men, will no doubt, come the championship varsity team of future years.

Coach Chapman gives his boys an inspiring talk before the game starts.

Byron Morse tries for two as Ken Cezar comes in to grab the rebound.

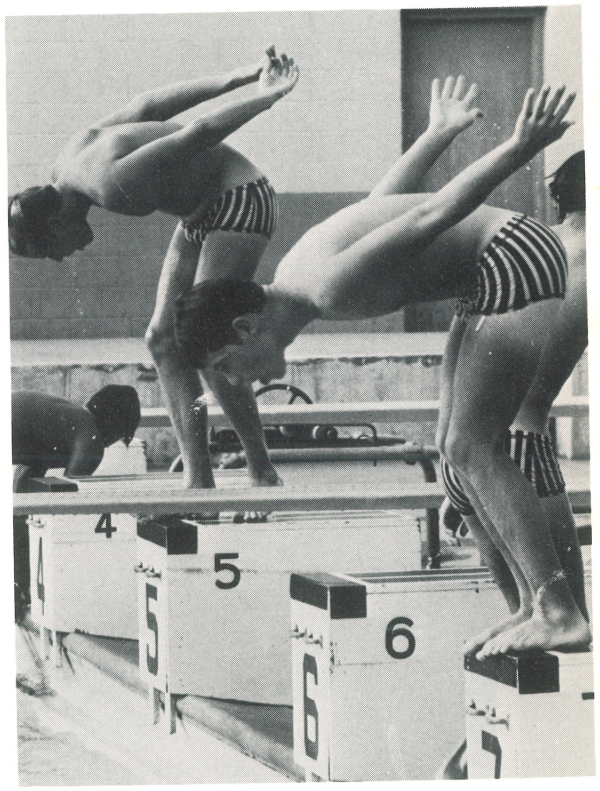
Damien Jumps into the Swim

During its first year, the swimming team improved steadily under the watchful eyes of Mr. Aluli. The team participated only at the J.V. level at first, but by mid-season it placed four swimmers in the varsity meets.

Because of a lack of student response, the team started with just a few members, but it has grown to 22 members in just three months. These members have trained loyally, and are currently ranked sixth, but with the improvement shown by such hard-working members as Hal Bryant, David Kailio, John Aldridge, and Andy Smith, the team is sure to take its place among the ILH leaders.



Hal Bryant prepares for stiff competition.

Spirit Makers Generate Enthusiasm

Damien cheerleaders go through their routines.

Throughout the entire sports year, Damien has been known for its fine school spirit. A great deal of credit goes to those few individuals who practiced many long hours and yelled their voices hoarse—our cheerleaders. Inspired by Reuben Luzano and advised by Brother Kennedy, the cheerleaders kept up the spirits of Damien's teams in defeat as well as in victory. Their enthusiasm at pep rallies and games has shown them to be the backbone of the Monarchs' spirit.

Intramurals Give Every Student A Chance to be a Hero

A sure strike?

Soccer is a game of strategy as well as stamina.

In intramurals everyone gets to be a hero.

The main purpose of the intramural program at Damien High is to supplement the varsity sports. The program offers competition in basketball, bowling, soccer, and tennis. Participation in this program is open to every student, thus giving each individual in the school the spirit of competitiveness. It instills in all the students school spirit, which extends to other school functions. Operated by the students and advised by Mr. Winterbottom, the intramural program has grown to be one of the more interesting activities in the school.

Student Leadership Through Student Responsibility

This year, the Student Government concerned itself primarily with Damien itself. Throughout the year, its actions were directed to the betterment of the students and the school. Many controversial changes occurred and only time will prove their success.

Part of the work of the Student Government assisted the administration in the school accreditation. A special accreditation committee was organized, representing all the segments of the school population. For the same reason, a Handbook Committee, headed by Mariano Corpuz, was also established. Its purpose was not to put down a set of rules, but rather to produce a booklet to help the students in daily school life.

The executive board of the Student Council consisted of President Mark Hamilton, Vice-President Mariano Corpuz, Vice-President Tim Edwards, Treasurer Paul Medeiros, and Secretary Tom Stark. With the advisor Brother Avendano and the student senators, the executive board achieved much to improve Damien.

Leadership Conference Produces Future Leaders

This year, Damien had the privilege of sponsoring the Fourth Annual Hawaii Catholic High School Leadership Conference. The conference, held January 31 through February 2, 1969, was designed to promote Christian leadership in Hawaii's Catholic high schools. Approximately 70 delegates from seven schools participated in group discussions, workshops, and debate, as well as listening to talks by such outstanding community leaders as Councilman Charles Campbell, Dean Robert Potter of the University of Hawaii, Miss Diana Hansen, and Mr. and Mrs. Chris Hart. Among the topics discussed were "Leadership–Social Conflict," "Leadership in Public Service," and "Leadership in Religion."

The conference begins with the delegates signing in.

Profound thought and concentration typified the HCHLC discussion groups.

Although beseiged by mosquitoes and the cold the delegates gathered around the campfire for a sing-out.

P.A.A.C.

The Pacific and Asian Affairs Council attempts to discuss the world's problems and elicit new ideas from its members. President Mariano Corpuz, with the help of Brother Avendano, has provided the club with fine leadership and useful ideas. All members try to achieve the club's goal, "Man's Search for a World Without War."

PAAC Officers: Bernard Marcos (V. Pres.), Mariano Corpuz (Pres), Kimo Lunasco (OIC Rep.).

Honor Society Works for All Students

Consisting mostly of juniors and seniors, the National Honor Society has tried hard to live up to its goal of assistance to others in the school. In organizing a tutoring service to help students who want assistance and in participating in the Hawaii High Quiz Bowl, the members have established this group as the organization that is well-recognized in the school. Under the guidance of Brother Duffin, the NHS has followed its pledge of leadership, scholarship, character, and service to all.

Kamiano '69 has traveled many bumpy roads to achieve its completion. With excellent photography and the addition of eight pages illustrating student activities and campus life, this year's annual represents Damien at its best. Working together as a team, Editor Martin Chang and the various staffs met daily after school to select pictures, to compose captions and write-ups, and to make revisions to improve the book's presentation. Often this meant spending late nights and sacrificing weekends to meet deadlines. However the end product is well worth the efforts and sacrifices.

Now in its second year, Damien's band has more than achieved its goals of promoting school spirit and providing fine music for the students' enjoyment.

The band, one of the most important organizations in the school, is directed by Mr. James Ahloy and moderated by Brother O'Hare.

As the band increases in size and quality, its members show more and more enthusiasm and cooperation.

Throughout the year, the band has performed at school rallies, assemblies, and at Christmastime, as well as at all the football games.

By means of these fine performances, the band has greatly assisted the students in keeping up school spirit, as well as providing them with fine musical entertainment.

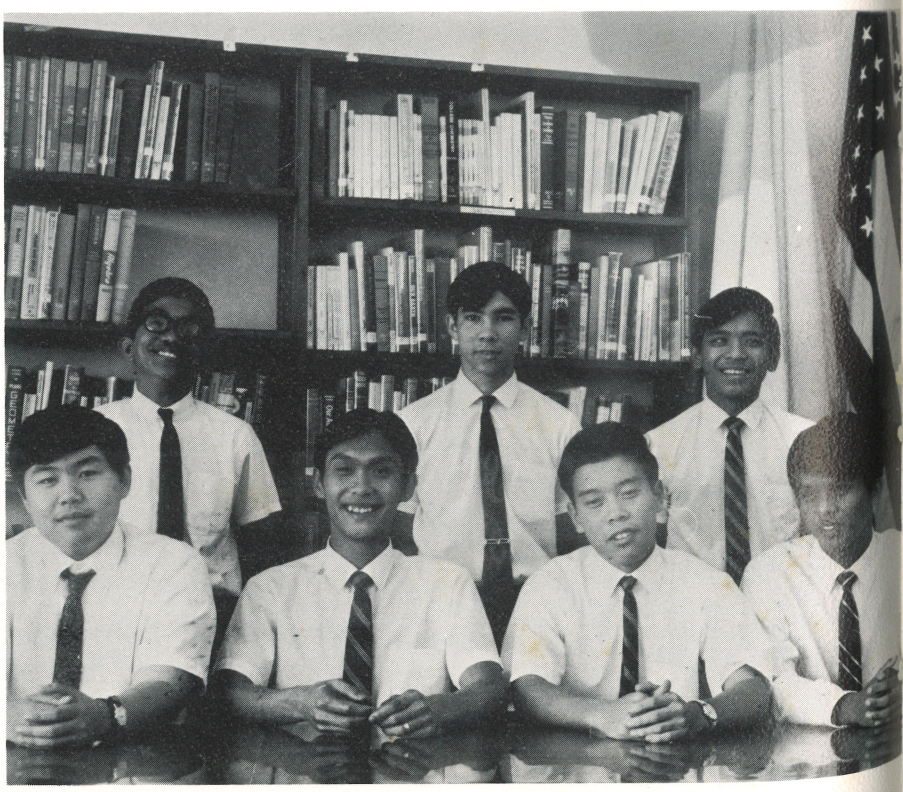
The Band members follow the lead of Mr. Ahloy, Band Conductor.

Committee Members (L-R): Gregory Lau, Jerome Yoza, Nelson Ching, Francis Kanekoa, Rudy Alejo, James McGhee, Brendan Cravalho, Peter Tabilang.

The Senior Prom Committee, headed by Nelson Ching this year, planned a very successful prom on the 26th of April. About 100 seniors and their dates gathered at the Top of Waikiki for the gala event. The dance was followed by the traditional catamaran ride on the Ale Ale Kai V.

Psychedelic or Soul: That is the Question

This year, the Juniors decided to have a semi-formal dance rather than a formal prom. The planning committee, headed by Nick Pavia, worked all year to make the dance a complete success. On April 19, eighty couples arrived at the Pikake Room of the Honolulu International Center for the event. Although this dance was the first of its kind, it proved to be very enjoyable and quite successful.



Sitting (L-R): Ivan Igarashi, Dennis Chang, Rodney Oto, Richard Valdez. Standing: Glenn Komomua, Nick Pavia, Phillip Aquino.

The Social Committee, headed by Eric Fong and moderated by Brother Avendano, provided the student body with numerous dances throughout the school term.

The Homecoming Dance featured the crowning of lovely Leslie Johnson of Sacred Hearts Academy as Damien's Homecoming Queen of 1968.

Also a great success, the Christmas Ball attracted many couples. Appropriately entitled "Winter Wonder Waltz," the dance featured the fine sounds of the "Estaires."

The Social Committee can proudly say that this year was a great success.

Committee Members–Sitting (L-R): Glenn Malubay, Mariano Corpuz, Eric Fong (Chairman), Benford Balansag, Glenn Konomua. Standing: Koon Wong, Rodney Oto, Steven Wong, Kearny Chang, Gilbert Ching, Charles Sadanaga.

A happy crowd is the end of the dance committee's effort.

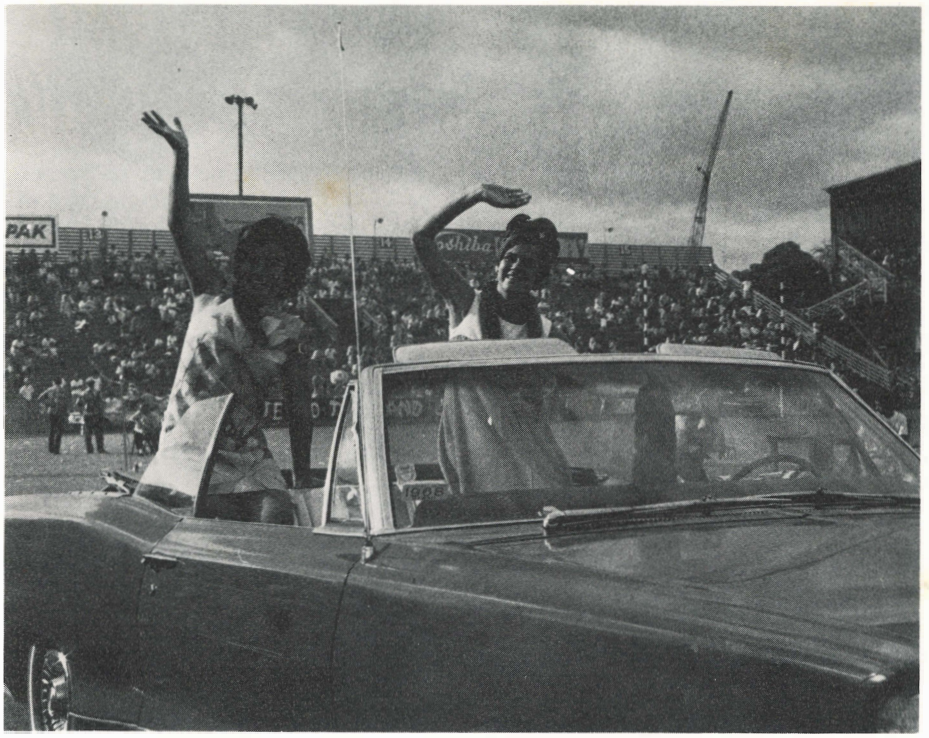
Homecoming 1968

Homecoming is always a day of great excitement and this year's was no exception. The Homecoming game against McKinley was a thriller with the Monarchs barely losing by a score of 34 to 22. The carcade at half-time was quite a sight, with Bradley Cook's car taking top honors of the day. That evening, the Homecoming Dance was held, with music being provided by the Intrigues and the Calientes. During the dance, the lovely Miss Leslie Johnson of Sacred Hearts Academy was crowned Damien's 1968 Homecoming Queen. Miss Johnson's coronation brought to a close this year's very successful Homecoming activities.

Mariano Corpuz announces the 1968 Homecoming Queen to the anxious crowd.



Contestants Stephanie Lee and Leslie Johnson are driven around the stadium during half-time activities at the Damien Homecoming game.

Is it a bird? Is it a plane?
No, it's a.....a car.

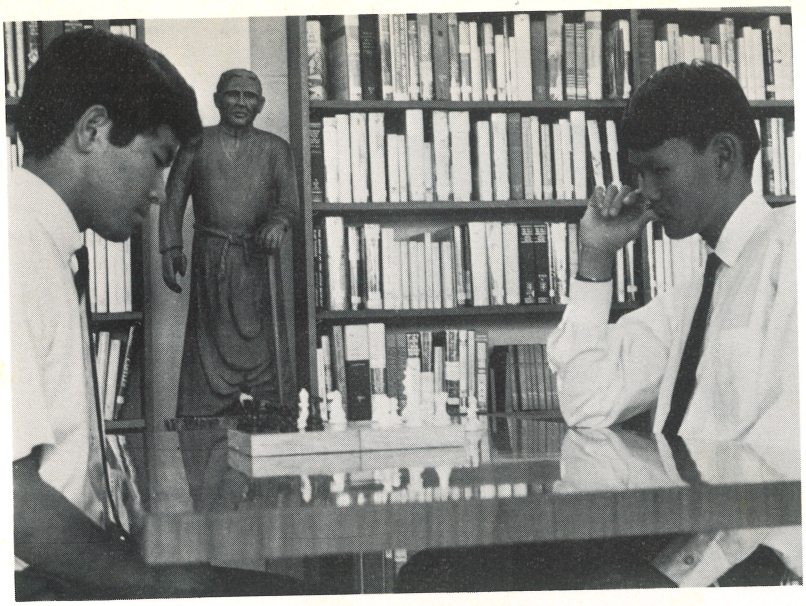
Mark Hamilton and Homecoming Queen Leslie Johnson start off the Royal Waltz.

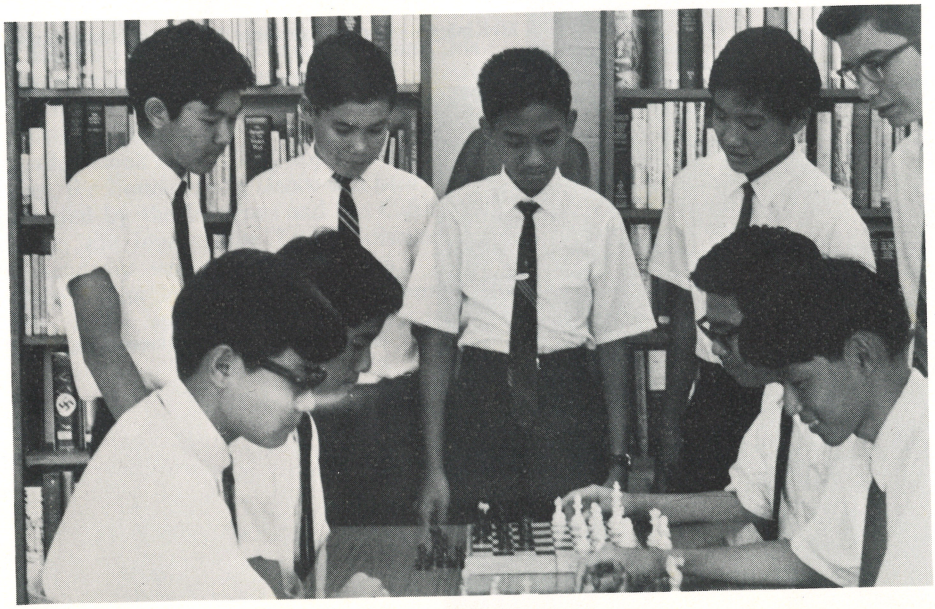


Officers: Pedring Bolosan (V. Pres.), Kearny Chang (Pres.).

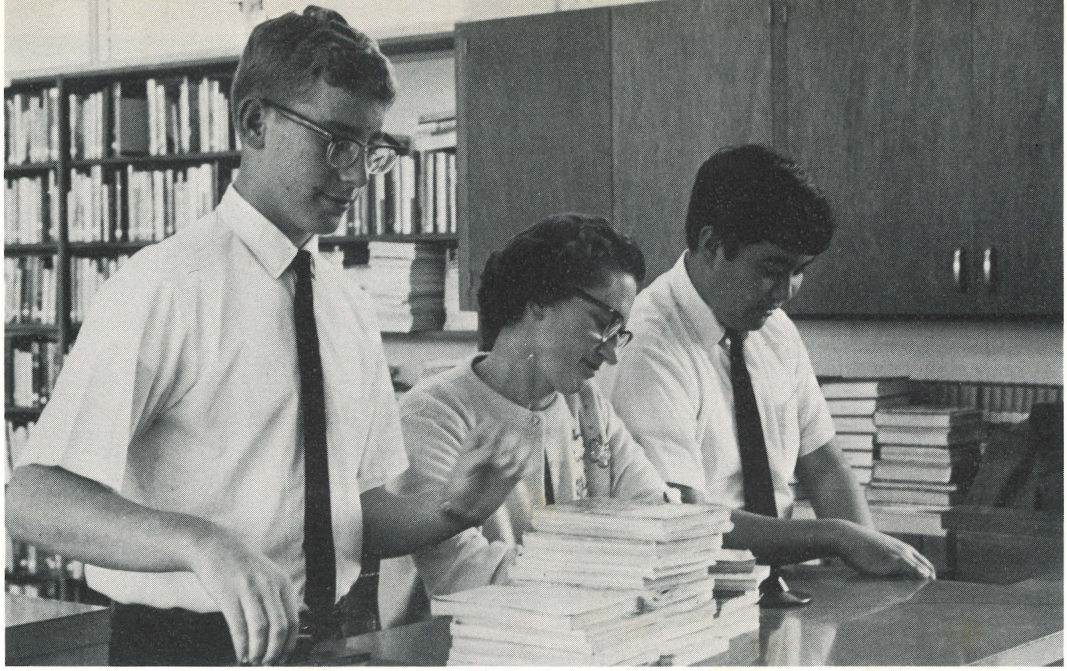
Chess Club Constantly Improves

The Chess Club, now in its second year of competition, has continued its practice of providing new and better chess techniques for its members. Moderated by Mr. Keely, the club met at least once a week to exchange ideas and to compete with each other. This year, headed by president Kearny Chang, and supported by the other members, the club has had a very successful season because of its constant improvements.

Members (L-R): Larry Lemson, Michael McCabe, Frederico Dalit, Gordon Dedman, Abraham Lum.



Members (L-R): Clarence Izuo, Christopher Chun, Ronald Toma, James Burke, Felix Castro, Brian Lum, Stanley Pang, Edward Enderle, Cleveland Pang.



The efficiency of the library increases with the improved system designed by school librarian, Mrs. Braz.

Religion in Action

Fathers Graff and Turner distribute the Body of Christ at the Christmas Mass.

Parents and Brothers listen attentively to Fr. DeCosta's sermon.

Br. Houlihan receives the Eucharist on his 25th Anniversary.

To encourage Christian living and thinking, daily mass was held at Damien during the school year for the student body. On special occasions such as the opening of school, the jubilees of Brothers Avendano, King, and Houlihan, and the feasts of Christmas and Easter, special Masses were celebrated by the entire student body in the pavillion. Also each religion class celebrated a classroom mass at least once during the year. These masses were held to complement the students' religious maturity and to give all the moral help they needed in their education.

Parents listen attentively at a monthly meeting.

Kokua Club Provides Close Association of Parents, Teachers, and Students

Brother Dornbos addresses Kokua Klub's monthly meeting as Mr. Ferry, president, and other general officers listen.

At a monthly meeting of the Kokua Club, parents listen to a lecture concerning the school's new reading program.

Kokua Klub Karvival – An Epic in Cooperation

The Kokua Klub Karnival at Damien has always been a great success, but this year it was even more so.

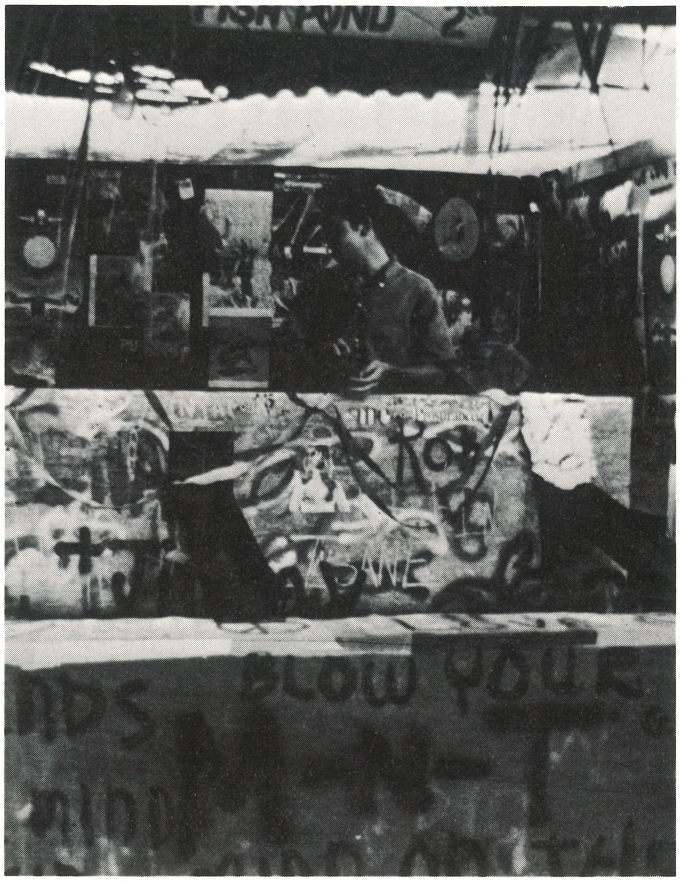
Along with fine weather and large crowds, there came a willingness to work, and a great sense of cooperation. The parents, under the leadership of chairman Val Cavaco, worked diligently, erecting booths, running games, and keeping the supply lines open.

The first task of the students, that of selling scrip, was easier than expected. Scrip sales rose to an all time high. Almost all the game and food booths were manned by hard working Monarchs, who gladly volunteered for the numerous tasks.

After the expenses were settled, approximately $26,000. remained for the school. This year's carnival was surely the greatest ever.

Damien food booth workers await the coming crowd.

Huli huli chicken on the fire makes everyone hungry.



The selection of the best decorated booth was a difficult choice as one can see.

We, the editors of Kamiano '69, gratefully express our appreciation to Mr. George Kodama, Seniors James Garber and Howard Takenaka, and Junior Eric Auyong for their photographs, to Mr. Augie Diaz and Pischel Yearbook Company for their co-operation in printing the yearbook, to the Hawaii Catholic Herald for contributing pictures of Bishop Scanlan, to the staffs of Kamiano '69 for their time and diligent work, and to Brother Duffin for his advice and guidance, for without the co-operation of these people, Kamiano '69 would have never been completed.
